Part B for July 1933

SUBJECT.

Procedure adopted re: grant of title in Mysore State.

WD 01965—GPB—15,000—7-7-34

Letter dated 28th June 1935 from the Ag Private Secy to H.H. Raja Saheb, Sangli, requesting to be informed about the titles instituted in the State and a copy of programme presented for administrative training given Princes.

Sabo. In Mysore titles are of four kinds. They are bestowed on high officers of Govt., on distinguished Scholars or persons who have established charities on a large scale or rendered public services deserving very special recognition. [A list of titles so conferred is put up for reference]. The name given title is specially coined so as to befit the particular service proposed to be recognised in respect of each given Awardee. (Each title is accompanies by Khillats + a jewel whose value varies according to class of title) No particular distinction is laid down confining any of these titles to gentlemen only, though Award to ladies are naturally very few.

Besides titles, medals and certificates are awarded to persons who contribute towards acts of public utility Sums of about Rs 25000/- and less or render equivalent Service or public bodies etc. The medals are of two class. The certificates are signed by the Dewan or Deputy Commissioners. The present enquiry seems to have no reference to these classes of honours.

Dear Mr. Noronha,

It appears that the Mysore Government has instituted titles on the Indian style such as Raja-mantrapravin, Rajasevapravin etc. His Highness the Raja Saheb of Sangli is interested to know the various titles so instituted and the rules or instructions, if any, governing the conferment of such distinctions. Will you very kindly supply me with this information at your leisure.

In his conversations with His Highness the Rajasaheb, the other day, about the training of Princes, the Dewansaheb told His Highness that Mysore Government had a regular standard programme and instructions for the Princes coming here for training. May I request you to supply a copy of such programme and instructions for the information of His Highness.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Submitted for orders.

9th July 5

Dear Sir,

I am desired to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated the 28th June 1935, to the Private Secretary to the Dewan, asking for some information regarding the grant of titles in this State and the training given to Princes who come here for training in administration.

System of Titles awarded in Mysore.

Titles are conferred by His Highness the Maharaja at Palace Durbars (usually during Dasara) on high officers of Government who have served the State with conspicuous ability, distinguished scholars, public spirited persons and others who have rendered other meritorious public services. Each title holder is given a jewel bearing the insignia of the Mysore Royal House (Gandabherunda) and suitable khillats, whose value varies according to the class of title. There are four classes of titles. The jewels take the form of a necklace with a pendant, except in respect of awards to oriental scholars in whose case a jewelled bangle is presented.

The name of the title is specially chosen on each occasion so as to suit the particular services of the individual concerned. The titles awarded are announced in the Mysore Gazette and a list of all title-holders is also published in the Mysore State Civil List, of which a copy is enclosed.

Programme of training for Princes.

The details of the programme are fixed up with reference to the time that a Prince may be able to devote for the purpose and other special requirements if any.

A copy of the programme drawn up in the case of the Raja Sahib of Akalkot who is now undergoing training here is enclosed. It covers a period of about one year.

Yours sincerely
